

Rhode Island Energy Federal Government Shutdown Customer Self-Attestation Form

Rhode Island Energy™
a PPL company

We understand that the federal government shutdown may be creating financial uncertainty for many customers. If you're a federal employee, contractor, or active military and concerned about paying your energy bill, we're here to help. This support is available regardless of your current account status or any existing payment agreements.

To help us better understand your situation and provide assistance, please complete the self-attestation form below, or call us for assistance. This will allow us to temporarily place a hold on your account for the duration of the shutdown, and will prevent your account from being negatively impacted.

When the Federal Government Reopens
